

The NAB is wrong in this as they have been in the past. Why try to go against XM? Haven't they learned anything? People are moving to XM because it's better in quality and it has more interesting programming. Let the NAB figure out how to make more interesting radio and leave XM alone.